Are you part of the 99 percent... of people who love a good burrito?

You're in luck. The Occupy movement hits another critical location today, namely your friendly neighborhood California Tortilla. On Wednesday, Oct. 26, 1 percent of their gross sales will go to local food banks.

All customers who show come out to make Occupy CalTort a success will receive free chips and queso with their purchase.

You can get your gift three ways: saying "Occupy CalTort" to your cashier, printing off the "Occupy CalTort" sign from the Facebook page, or -- for creative burrito lovers out there -- creating your own sign and showing it when you place an order.

No chance to get to a California Tortilla today? You can still join the cause by uploading an original "Occupy CalTort" sign to their Facebook page. For each sign added, they will donate $1 to local food banks.
